- The story of Edith

Tracey Dowe graduated from Aston University with a degree in Pharmacy Bsc Hons and worked in pharmacy for many years.

She trained to be a coach in Business Performance and Life Coaching and as a Neurostrategist, she is also a Master NLP Practitioner, Time Line™ Therapist and Master Hypnotherapist. Tracey says that she is PASSIONATE about supporting people to uncover their gifts and purpose, empowering them to live even more fulfilling lives whether that is on an individual basis or when training groups of people.

Tracey works from home which is in Swindon, England and work with clients internationally. She says "I have a real sense of mission to "Inspire you to find the best within yourselves in order to give the best of yourselves" it just requires you to take responsibility, have some vision and find the right strategies.

The program will include a short Q & A session.

This event is being held at our training centre: Light refreshment provided, £5.00 for members, £10 for non college members. Doors open 6.30 pm.
